Opening Services-Affectionate Greeting to Bishop Whittle-Standing Committees Announced, &c , &c.

(Reported for the Dispatch.) STAUNTON, May 16, 1888.
The ninety-third annual council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Dicese of Virginia met to-day at 10 o'clock in Trinity church, Staunton, which beautiful structure has recently been enlarged and remedelled, and is now one of the handsomest and most completely convenient church edi-fices in the diocese. There was a large congregation present and about the usual attendance of clerical and lay delegates.

In the chancel this morning were Right Rev. A. M. Raudolph, D. D., assistant hishop of the diocese; Rev. George W. Peterkin, of the Diocese of West Virginia; Rev. L. W. Burton, of St. John's church, historical Rev. Harve of St. Paul's Richmond; Rev. D. Hanes, of St. Paul's church, Petersburg; Rev. W. Q. Hulliban, of St. Paul's The water in the river proper is at a standof Trinity church, Stauston, Morning Prayer and the Lessons were read by Rev. Dr. Hanes and the Lilany by Rev. Mr. Barton. The Ante-Communion was said by Bishop Randoph. Rev. Lewis W. Burton, of St. John's church, Richmond, delivered the opening sermon from the text II. Timothy, ii., 19.

the two bishops. CALLED TO ORDER - BUSINESS. At the conclusion of the services the council was called to order and the roll of ciercy and larty called. Eighty-one ciergy-men responded to their names, and 103 lay delegates,

Bishop Randolph announced that Revs.
Thomas Spencer, S. P. Dame, G. S. Phelps,
G. G. Snead, and Messrs, J. W. Beveridge,
Thomas Townsend, and S. I. Allen would serve as the committee on credentials.
The committee immediately retired to consider the crodentials, and after the larse of a few minutes reported, through their chairman, the credentials of the lay delegates read by the secretary.

The usual rules of order were adopted, on motion of Rev. T. G. Dashiell, except that the third rule was modified so as to read that after the reading of the Bisbop's address the council shall elect the standing committees of the diocese, Executive Committee of the of the diocese, Executive Committee of the Diocesen Missionary Society, and such other committees as are necessary for the transaction of the business of the diocese until the next annual meeting of the council. CHANGE OF TIME OF MEETING.

Rev. Dr. Dame presented a proposed amendment to the constitution, which, if adopted, will provide for the annual mectadopted, will provide for the annual meeting of the council on the Wednesday after Trinity Sunday, which would place the meeting somewhere between the 20th of May and the 20th of June.

The mover suggested that by this change the members would be all enabled to remain to the end of the council and hear the Bishop's closing address on Sunday night.

After some discussion, on motion of Judge Shefey, the proposition was laid on the table.

Rev. Dr. Dashiell presented the following,

Rev. Dr. Dashiell presented the following, chich was agreed to:

Resolved, That Article X. of the Constitution be mended as as to read as follows:

Each annual council shall elect by ballot a moding committee consisting of six members—

reverdercal and three of the lay order—who as he communicants of the Church in the die ce, and he shall continue in office until their accessors all be appointed. SPIRITUAL FEATURES OF THE COUNCIL. Rev. Kinlock Nelson, D. D., offered the

Whereas it is of supreme importance to maintain the spiritual features which have hitherto characterized our councils:

Reserved, That the members of this council be urged to attend the religious services to unite in praise to almignly God for His blessings in the pear, and in prayer that He will vouchsafe to continue these pleasings to our Church and diecese in the future.

Adjourned until 10 A. M. to-morrow. MISSIONARY MEETING.

A very large missionary meeting was held to-night, at which Rev. Dr. Pike Powers read the report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society. It showed that fifty-three white ministers had been added by the society and some colored ones. The amount expended for this aid was $8,520. For the first time the contributions to the fund have exceeded the $10,000 promised, for they this year reached $10,500. The report says that there are now vacant some fifteen or sixteen parishes in the diocese, and the process of vacating goes on faster than the process of vacating goes on faster than the pro-cess of supplying and will continue to do so as long as other dioceses offer better salaries and equally good fields. The report warmly thanks the contributors of the past year and particularizes the Sunday-school teachers and children.
